

AMY LOW

BARRISTER AT LAW
ABN 25 948 973 544

Amy has a general commercial practice, with a focus upon commercial disputes, administrative law, contracts and property law. She has a particular interest in arbitration and resources, energy and infrastructure.

Before joining the Bar in 2017, Amy worked as an associate in the commercial arbitration and dispute resolution team at MinterEllison, as a solicitor in commercial litigation at Holding Redlich and as an Associate to the Honourable Justice G Martin AM of the Supreme Court of Queensland.

Amy was admitted as a solicitor in Queensland in 2012.

NORTH QUARTER
LANE
C H A M B E R S

Level 30, Santos Place
32 Turbot Street
Brisbane Qld 4000

T 07 3003 0044
M 0418 815 599

alow@qldbar.asn.au

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Arbitration, Bankruptcy and Insolvency, Contract, Corporations Law, Employment Law, Equity, Insurance, Intellectual Property, Judicial Review and Administrative Law, Property, Resources and Energy, Planning and Environment, Trade Practices and Competition.

EXPERIENCE

Significant matters as a barrister include:

- appearing as sole counsel in matters before the Federal Court, Federal Circuit Court, Supreme Court of Queensland, District Court of Queensland, Magistrates Court of Queensland and the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal;
- appearing as junior counsel in matters before the Queensland Court of Appeal;
- advising in various disputes including but not limited to alleged misleading and deceptive conduct, breaches of contract, planning and employment law;
- junior counsel in an arbitration of disputes arising from a complex IT contract;
- junior counsel in a dispute arising out of fraud and alleged professional negligence;
- junior counsel in an expert determination relating to alleged non-performance of works associated with the Wiggins Island Rail Project; and
- junior counsel in a dispute before the Supreme Court of Queensland relating to the non-development of a mine in Monto and associated breaches of various agreements.

Significant matters as a solicitor include:

- proceedings on the Supreme Court of Queensland commercial list, representing clients in the energy and resources sector regarding issues of contractual interpretation;
- litigation regarding claims of negligence involving a number of defendants;
- disputes arising out of property and leasing disputes and providing advice in relation to property and leasing matters, including advice in relation to retail shop leasing;
- advising in relation to rights and obligations in a variety of practice areas, including but not limited to, insurance, workplace health and safety and employment law, liquor law, judicial review and administrative law, corporations law, competition and consumer law, statutory interpretation, franchising and defamation;
- litigation in the Federal Court, Supreme Court of Queensland, District Court of Queensland, Magistrates Court of Queensland, Magistrates Court of Victoria, the Queensland Industrial Relations Commission and in the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal;
- appearances in applications before the Supreme Court of Queensland; and
- arbitration under the Commercial Arbitration Act 2010.

MEMBERSHIPS

Bar Association of Queensland

CAREER

2017	Barrister
2015 – 2017	MinterEllison, Brisbane
2014 – 2015	Holding Redlich Lawyers, Brisbane
2013	Associate to the Honourable Justice G Martin AM, Supreme Court of Queensland

EDUCATION

2012	Griffith University, Bachelor of Laws (Honours)
2012	Griffith University, Bachelor of Criminology and Criminal Justice
2012	College of Law, Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice